

Wasco County Fair Queen Tryouts - $500 College Scholarship

The Wasco County Fair will have tryouts for the 2017 Queen in the rodeo arena at the Wasco County Fairgrounds at Tygh Valley on Thursday, August 18th at 2:00 p.m.

The Queen will make several appearances as representative of the Wasco County Fair for 2017. Attendance is mandatory for Wasco County events. Contestants will be judged on speaking ability, Fair & Rodeo knowledge, personality and appearance, ie. appearance of horse, appropriate tack (50% of total); and horsemanship (30% run out and 20% pattern).

Girls must be unmarried (have never been married and have no children), a resident of Wasco County for the previous six months, or attend a Wasco County school, be fifteen to twenty-one years of age at the time of tryouts, and have not served as Wasco County Fair queen previously. For the tryouts, girls must wear suitable costume including a long sleeved shirt and Western hat.

All contestants must use their own horse or provide a lease for the horse they intend to use during tryout and reign as Queen. Each girl will furnish transportation for herself and her horse to each show, parade, rodeo or other event. The Queen must be chaperoned at all events by a parent, guardian, or a chaperone approved by the fair board or Queen coordinators.

The queen will be furnished $500 for a suitable wardrobe by the Wasco County Fair Board. If at any time the Board discovers that the Queen has misrepresented herself, she will be disqualified and will forfeit all the clothes the Fair Board has furnished her and shall reimburse the Fair Board for any other monies. The first runner up will take her place.

For Queen Applications, contact Liz Pohlehn 541-296-1428.